Boston, June 16 .- (Special) .- So many op portunities went to waste in the opening game of the Washington series at the South End today and the heavy batsman seemed to be so generally afflicted with that "tired feeling" that the contest, in spite of its closeness, was "dead" in its interest to the speciators.

It was a game in which the winner could not take any pride, while the losers had good cause to be ashamed that they did not win. It was a toss up which would win, and the Bostons had the luck. was doubtless to Weyling's credit that the Boston batsman made such a poor exhibition.

The Senators, too, made a sorry exhibillion at the but with men on the bases, but in critical places Nichols's grand pitching kept them in check. There was some grumbling at the umpires and though it is doubtful if an decision effected the result, it must be admitted that the Senators got the short end.

"Bobby" Lowe led both teams at the hat, but two of his him were scratches in the infield. Lowe and Collins carried off the honors for Boston, Wrigley, Gettman. and "Bert" Meyers did some very clever fielding for the Senators while Reitz and Meyers did the best hitting.

In the first inning a base on balls and a wild pitch put Selbach on second with no one out; but the next three men went out in order, Gettman striking out. A single by Duffy, a base on balls to Tenney and a sacrifice by Collins was Hoston's opening. "Jack" Stivett's best offors was a grounder to Meyers. Duffy dashed for the plate and got there by a good slide. A fast double play on Berpen's hit to Wrigley closed the inning. in the fourth, with two out, Lowe scratched a hit and Nichols followed with nt Gothum. New York, June 18.—The Philadelphias played burlesque baseball at the Polo Grounds today, and were never in the hunt. Platt gave ten bases on balls, and his fielding support was marred by eight blunders, to say nothing of a fumble by himself. Two of the Quakers were also caught asleep off first base. The New Yorks, on the other hand, played well in the field, widle Seymour pitched wonderrul ball. He struck out eleven men, com-ing within one of the record of the sea-son, held by Doheny. Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then dy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. Here Are Hess' Seal Shoes.

The "smart" shape which has set the whole town talking-and wearing them. Notice that they are slightly broader than the old "Egg toe," which

Hess created originally and which every maker in the world has copied. Hess' Seal Shoes are in Low Cut, $5; High Cut, $6.

A little more than ordinary shoes cost, and the extra price is not only for the extra style-but the extra comfort, wear and satisfaction.

An Unjust Reviewer. (From the Atlanta Constitution. We notice an attack, in an Eastern re view, on recent "Verses" of Mr. William Little Bigger. The reviewer says that Mr. Bigger "is no poet." That is the sum and substance of it. Bur let us see about that: The published portrait of the author shows that his hair is extremely long. That is because barbers charge 25 cents to cut it, and won't take poems in payment. He wears no lewelry of any kind, explaining its absence by the statement that he has "pledged all his effects in order to publish his book." He informs us that he writes "near to heaven." That means the fifteenth story, where rent is cheap, and hill collectors fear to tread. He also says he "burns the midnight oil." That is because he cannot afford gas. A little further on he says: "My breakfast is a sonview, on recent "Verses" of Mr. William ther on he says: "My breakfast is a sor net." And that settles it. If Mr. William Little Bigger is not a poet, he will be, when he grows a little bigger. He has all the attributes. Give him a show!
